

My Journey

In the midst of his journey to success,
an inevitable disgrace he always face.
However he stands proud and yet unfazed,
for everyday he ponders an optimistic phase.

This venture led the man to a path,
the path that no man, could do alone.
Reliability stands firm so come what may,
he met some strangers along the way.

In symphony of sorrows, we find Empathy's attribute is healing and kind.
Empirical and empathy this brave man do,
he looks and peeks on the bright side too.

The battle and days he always fight,
against his self and his everyday life.
His journey began decades ago,
but matrix he will meet is yet to come.

This man sustains the burden with all his might,
the burden or curse to always strive.

Life is full deceptions and fools of unmanliness,
this fool does not forget that in sorrows seek happiness
